

DAILY REPORTS

PURPOSE:

1. To receive report on changes in resident's condition, so as to provide continuity of nursing care.
2. To facilitate communication between shifts.

Everyone on the nursing staff is expected to receive report at the beginning of the shift.

A daily report will be maintained on each nursing unit noting pertinent facts for quick reference by nursing personnel.

Report review is also available through the EHR communication report.